FIRST READING: A READING FROM JEREMIAH, CHAPTER 31, BEGINNING AT VERSE 31

The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah. It will not be like the covenant that I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt – a covenant that they broke, though I was their husband, says the Lord. But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, 'Know the Lord', for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the Lord; for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more. This is the Word of the Lord.

THE EPISTLE: 1 JOHN, CHAPTER 3, BEGINNING AT VERSE 1

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure. This is the Word of the Lord.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MATTHEW, CHAPTER 5, BEGINNING AT VERSE 1

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying: 'Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.'

'Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.'

'Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.'

'Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.'

‘Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.’

‘Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.’

‘Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.’

‘Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness’ sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.’

‘Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.’ This is the Gospel of the Lord.

REMEMBRANCE – WELCOME

This morning’s service is a reflective time as we gather to mark All Saints and to remember those loved ones who are no longer with us. If this is your first time back in Holy Trinity since the funeral of a loved one, you are especially welcome. As we remember loved ones who have died, whether in recent times or many years ago, we hope that in today’s service you will find peace and consolation in God’s presence.
